Chair Chodroff opened the floor for discussion relative to the presentations given by Dean Hansell, Partner, Hogan Lovells and Former Chair of the Los Angeles Sheriff’s Civilian Oversight Commission Working Group; Dr. Jesus Corral, Senior Director, Education Reform, Los Angeles County Probation Department; and Dr. Michael Schumacher, Probation Consultant, Research and Evaluation. Discussion ensued and the Probation Oversight Commission Working Group considered the following: possible additional one-on-one meetings with Dean Hansell; inviting unions and other associations relative to Probation interaction; streamlining the reporting process for Probation entities; strengthening the relationship between the Los Angeles County Office of Education and Probation and enlisting the Board of Supervisors’ assistance in advocating for such; and the consideration of the recommendations presented by Dr. Corral.

Chair Chodroff inquired if it would be helpful to have former Probation employees to come before the Working Group. Cal Remington, Interim Chief Probation Officer, indicated that he will look into who might be available to appear, and also informed the Working Group that Dr. Schumacher can return after his reports are concluded.

4. Working document for draft recommendations to the Board of Supervisors relative to Probation oversight. (16-2848)

Chair Chodroff presented a draft document to the Working Group to serve as a starting point for the discussion of the process for developing recommendations to the Board of Supervisors. The Working Group agreed that Members’ comments relative to the draft document will be forwarded to Commission Staff. Staff will work with the Chair and County Counsel to draft a document from which the Working Group Members can begin the development of their recommendations.

Working Group Members discussed and made suggestions relative to expanding potential recommendations. Member Meredith highlighted the issue of the various entities that interact with the Probation Department, but not with each other, and suggested that some coordination should be considered between all the entities that interact with the Probation Department. Member Holt voiced her concern relative to the coordination of report processing and suggested that the Oversight Commission serve as the source from which pertinent information and reports can be disseminated. Vice Chair Johnson indicated that the potential Probation Oversight Commission should have a sufficient amount of authority in order to ensure that recommendations and processes continue to move forward.

Vice Chair Johnson also referred to a 2010 Report to the Board of Supervisors relative to the Management and Administrative Assessment of the Probation Department. Commission Staff was requested to obtain the Report and disseminate to the Working Group Members and other interested parties.

The Working Group discussed various processes for the intake of recommendations from sources other than the Working Group and requested the Commission Staff and CEO to develop an intake process for outside comments and recommendations.

By Common Consent, there being no objection, the Probation Oversight Commission Working Group approved the process for the development of a Draft Recommendation Working Document; requested the Commission Staff and CEO to develop an intake process for outside comments and recommendations; and include a standing item for review of outside comments and recommendations on forthcoming agendas.
