Definition: Residential Treatment Centers for adults or juveniles are facilities that provide services on-site in a highly structured live-in environment for the treatment of drug/alcohol abuse, mental illness, and emotional/behavioral disorders. These facilities are staffed 24-hours a day. The focus of a residential treatment center is on the treatment program.

Residential Treatment Centers do not include facilities operated by or for correctional authorities.

Residency Criteria: People in residential treatment centers for adults or juveniles (non-correctional) on Census Day, April 1st, are counted at the residence where they live and sleep most of the time. If residents or staff members do not have a usual home elsewhere, they are counted at the facility.
