

Angela Underwood Jacobs

Angela Underwood Jacobs has over 25 years of leadership experience directing strategic initiatives that drive revenue growth and create long-term relationships. As Senior Vice President at California Bank & Trust, Angela manages business banking throughout Ventura County, San Bernardino County, and North Los Angeles County.

With a passion for leadership, teamwork, and winning, Angela has developed and executed growth strategies for leading national and regional banks, significantly improving performance for shareholders, clients, and communities. She consistently adds value to others by serving as a mentor and coach. Her approach is embodied in her motto, "Individually we are special. Together we are spectacular."

Angela's commitment to continued growth has enabled her to spearhead new business opportunities in the community. Utilizing the invaluable leadership experience she has acquired throughout her professional career, Angela is helping local business leaders, non-profit groups, and government agencies collaborate more closely, creating opportunities for individuals, families, and businesses to grow and thrive.

Known for her business and financial services expertise, Angela is often a speaker at business conferences on topics that include women in finance and business expansion, among many others.

As a City Council member of the City of Lancaster, California, Angela has been instrumental in the development and success of multiple committees and outreach programs. Her contributions include: Criminal Justice Commissioner for the City of Lancaster, Honorary Board Member for the Children's Center of Antelope Valley, Vice Chair of Antelope Valley Hospital Advisory Subcommittee on Tobacco, Alcohol and Drug Prevention for Minors, and Board Member of the Antelope Valley Board of Trade.

Angela holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Management from the University of Phoenix. She resides in Lancaster with her husband and two children.
